Departed this life, on the 24th inst., in the 31st year of his age, at the residence of his mother, ALFRED DOBIE, after a long protracted illness, which he bore with great fortitude. It is true that dark clouds hung over his skies for some months during his sickness, but after contending and warranted to centain 8 per ct. of Ammonia, with the storm clouds for some time, He who said let there be light, and there was light, gently and gradually, with the hand of mercy, dispelled the clouds, and some time before his death, he praised the Lord in a joyful strain, and declared that death had no terrors for him; and to his mother he said, "weep not for me, I am going to Jesus!" To his brother, he said "meets me in Heaven?" Many other words of the kind were uttered, which, if related, would make this obituary too long. In this frame of mind he left the world with a bright hope, for, said he, "I love Jesus, and I know he loves me !"

THE LADIES OF ALEXANDRIA .-"Beauty, needs not the aid of foreign ornament, But is, when unadorned, adorned the most."

It has been a matter of pride and exultation with many Southern Cities, that the ladies have been the first to espouse the cause doffing the gorgeous fabrics of Northern importation, and donning the more simple but not less comfortable homemade apparel. In this respect Alexandria is not behind her sister cities of the South. Some of her belles, actuated by a feeling of patriotic devotion to the interests of the South, have already made their appearance in "linsey doubtless soon follow the commendable ex-
